Year 9 GCSE Timetable June 2010

This is a detailed timetable showing the GCSE exams being taken by Year 9 this summer. You should study this carefully.

It is the time given on this timetable that you must follow.

Where it says "Assemble Time" this means the time you must be waiting outside the exam room. It will then give you enough time to file into the exam room and papers to be issued in a calm and organised manner with the aim of starting approximately 5-10 minutes later.

Remember, exam conditions start immediately you enter the exam room – if you can't remember these please refer to the Exam Guide you have been given or go onto the College Website: www.robertsbridge.org.uk or VLE where you will find a copy on the Exam Page.

IMPORTANT : Keep checking the Exam Notice Board for seating plans and up to date information during the exam period.

Finally:

If you have any concerns please let me know as soon as possible.

A Marden – Exams Officer
